

Famous portrait artist Fritz Werner spent many winters at the San Marcos. He delighted guests with his creative costumes at the hotel's themed parties, and painted portraits for many of the guests as well as the local elite.

•Exhibit Home	Next Exhibit ?
-------------------------------	--------------------------------